

ASA JESSE ABSHIER, Third Child of
BENJAMIN ABSHIER, SR. and HANNAH WEED

ASA JESSE ABSHIER, son of BENJAMIN ABSHIER, SR. and wife, HANNAH WEED, was born Jan. 3, 1816, St. Martin Parish, La., according to the official "Baptism Certificate". It states that this boy using only the name of JESSE ABSHIER in this Church Record, was born Jan. 3, 1816, and was baptized, April 7, 1816 in ST. MARTIN OF TOURS CATHOLIC CHURCH of St. Martinville, La. This document also states that his parents are: BENJAMIN ABSHIRE, SR. and wife, HANNAH WEED, it further states that his paternal grandparents are: JOHN ABSHIRE and wife, FRANCES (FANNY) HARGRAVES, that his maternal grandparents are: JOSEPH WEED and wife, MARGARET (PEGGY) GWALTNEY.

ASA JESSE ABSHIER was one of the first of the ABSHIRE CLAN that changed the spelling of his last name, from ABSHIRE to ABSHIER. There was also another way, ABSHEAR, which was first noted in the diary of COL. WM. FAIRFAX GREY, who toured Texas from Va. in 1835 and '36 and returned to Va. thru Louisiana via horseback. While he was riding thru the CAJUN COUNTRY of Louisiana, nearing Mermentau on way to the Vermillion, Grey stated that he spent the night at the home of ASA ABSHEAR, hired him as a guide the next day, said ASA invited him to stay until Saturday night and join them at their regular weekly BALL for which the Cajuns were noted. His name was also listed as, ASA ABSHIER, on his marriage record in 1838.

ASA ABSHIER came to Texas in 1843, when his parents, two brothers and four sisters and all of their families came. All of them settled in Liberty Co., Tx., except one sister, LAVINA and her MOOR family, who moved first to Jefferson Co., Tx., but later moved to Liberty about the middle 1850's.

ASA JESSE ABSHIER, b. Jan. 3, 1816, baptized Apr. 7, 1816, St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church of St. Martinville, La., d. Mar. 27, 1892, Liberty, Tx. m. (1) Apr. 24, 1838 to LUCY ANDRUS, b. Feb. 12, 1820, St. Landry Parish, La., d. May 17, 1882, Waco, Tx., div., m. (2) Jan. 27, 1851 to CATHERINE LAUGHLIN by Justice Benjamin Adair, b. ca. 1829, d. . She was the dau. of GEORGE LAUGHLIN and wife, _____.

ASA ABSHIER along with his wife, LUCY ANDRUS, his two daughters, MALINA and LUCINDA came to Texas with the Clan but settled southwest of Liberty Co., in the CLEAR CREEK COMMUNITY, Galveston Co., Tx., where they had three more children, ANDREW JACKSON, MALLISSA ANN, and JAMES ALEXANDER. They lived at Clear Creek Community until Oct. 1, 1850 at which time, ASA and LUCY separated. ASA took the four older children, JAMES not born at the time, and moved to Liberty Co., Tx. where his parents and kindred lived. LUCY remained in the Clear Creek Community, where her son, JAMES ALEXANDER was born.

ASA ABSHIER died Mar. 27, 1892 in Liberty, Tx. and was buried in the City Cemetery, only a short distance from his last home. His birth and death dates were verified from his Bible and other records when orders were given in preparations of making his tombstone at the head of his grave in the ABSHIER plot in the City Cemetery, Liberty, Tx.

ASA ABSHIER obtained license to marry LUCY ANDRUS, Apr. 17, 1838, St. Landry Parish, La., and this was executed Apr. 24, 1838 by Justice CLARK per Bible records. LUCY ANDRUS was born Feb. 12, 1820, St. Landry Parish, La., died May 17, 1882, Waco, Tx., buried in the Oakwood Cemetery, Waco, Tx. She was the daughter of JOSEPH ANDRUS, SR. and wife, HETTY DUNKS.

Herewith is the Marriage Bond and Usual Note attached as custom in St. Landry Parish.

First, the handwritten note addressed to JUDGE KING:

Mr. KING, as it is not convenient that we cannot come and see you ourselves you will be so good as to give, MR. ASA ABSHIER, license to get married to my daughter, LUCY ANDRUS as it is done by my consent and you will be perfectly safe in so doing. Given under my hand this 15th April, 1838.

From and Old Newspaper Article which covered the death of LILLIE GREEN.

BURIED AT HOCHHEIM, TEXAS, The remains of, MRS. JOHN V. BLAKE, nee MISS LILLIE GREEN, were laid to rest at Hocheim on Wednesday of last week. MRS. BLAKE died before her brother JOHN GREEN (Note: this is an error. JOHN was her uncle) and her sister MRS. WORD (This was ANNIE GREEN) reached her bedside. Her parents MR. and MRS. FREE GREEN, had been invited to spend Christmas with her, but were called to attend her dying bedside before that day. She died conscious of her approaching end, bid all her farewell and closed her eyes forever on earth without a struggle. It is the intention of her husband and parents to have her remains removed to Victoria at some future time. The little infant which she leaves will be cared for by its grandparents.

Llano, Tx. Newspaper article describing the marriage of J.W. HILL and MAUD ABSHIER

"Wednesday night, April 8, 1896 at the Methodist Church, MR. JOHN W. HILL was united in marriage to MISS MAUD ABSHIER, Rev. J.T. Gillett, officiating. A large crowd had assembled to witness the ceremony, and the Church was decorated with flowers, several pyramids of fresh blooming geraniums and chrysanthemums capped with lillies, being placed near the altar. MESSRS. GEORGE GRAY and LOUIS SWANSON acted as ushers. At 8:30 P.M. the bridal party arrived and passed up the aisle, keeping time to the dulcet tones of the wedding march, rendered so beautifully by MISS JENNIE CLOPTON, MESSERS, FRANK ALEXANDER, and FRANKLIN BUTTERY and MISSES ANNIE BUTTERY and TEDIE MONROE were the attendants of the occasion, MR. ALEXANDER acting as best man. The bride wore a cream dress and bridal veil, and the groom was dressed in conventional black. The ceremony was performed in an impressive manner, uniting this young couple for life in that holiest of institutions. The party then passed out and the assembled throng departed. MR. HILL is Assistant Cashier of the IRON NATION BANK of Llano and a rising young business man. The bride is one of Llano's fairest daughters, popular with all who knew her and accomplished. We wish them a bright and happy time in their voyage through life together."
